Liverpool Cotton market. The cotton trade early in the week was active, but closed with dullness this afternoon. The accounts by the America, corroborative of those brought by the Atlantic, caused the market to advance fully ad., but the speculative demand having fallen off, prices have receded, and quotations this week are nearly similar to those last quoted.

The week's transactions amount to 40,360 bales, of which speculators and exporters took 18,310, to the trade. The imports this week have exceeded the demand of spinners and exporters to the extent of 32,-532 bales; consequently, the estimated stock of cot-100 at Liverpoot is now put down at 481,000, bales against 565,000 at the same time last year. The committee of bankers, at their weekly meeting to-day, declared the prices of fair cotton as follows, viz: fair upland 7%; fair Mobile 8; fair Orleans 81d. per lb. Havre Colton market. Our latest letters from Havre

Extract from a letter to the Editor, dated RICHMOND County, Oct. 7, 4850.

"Enclosed you will find $1 to pay for the Semi-Weekly Standard, which I am anxious to see "come forth." * * * I notice from your extract from the Greensborough Patriot, that Abolitionists are at work in Guilford. I had heard of two preachers in Chatham, I think, promulgating Abolition loctrines; but I had no idea that the scoundrels were so open about it. What will the slave-holders do? Will they suffer such wretches to go at large, poisoning the minds of our slaves? A man who will quietly sit by and suffer the incendiary to apply the torch to his dwelling, is no better than the incendiary himself. I am by no means the advocate of Lynch Law, but I do think these worthies, McBride and Crooks, deserve a coat of tar and feathers, and should be made to run the gauntlet until they cross Mason and Dixon's Line. These fellows I under stand are from Ohio."

Our Richmond friend will perceive, from an article in another column, that Crooks and McBride have been arrested, and will be tried. They were bailed, as we understand. Why were they not jailed? Standard.]

DETROIT, MICHIGAN, Oct. 8, 1850. FURTHER OF THE EFFECTS OF THE FUGITIVE LAW. Considerable excitement has been created here by the arrest of a fugitive slave under the new law. An examination took place here to-day, and in consequence of the threats of a great number of negroes, who armed themselves and avowed their determination to rescue the prisoner, Scott's Guards, Gray's Guards, and the United States troops were called out, and with loaded muskets escorted the fugitive from the prison to the court room. No attempts were made to release the prisoner, although some stones, bricks, and other missiles were thrown at the marshal's carriage. 'The crowd dispersed, and the negro was committed to jail in order to get parties to procure evidence.

GENERAL MUSTER. It will be seen by reference to our columns that a General Muster will be held in Halifax Town on the 17th inst. under an order from Maj. Gen. Singeltary, when the upper and lower regiments undergo a single review. This we think is very well as the regiments are so small it would require the union of both to make a respectable show. We know but little of Gen. Singeltary, only that he served a tour in the Mexican war, and gained the reputation of being a good tactician. We should like to see a little more military pride evinced in our County and hope he may succeed in getting up some. We are sure there are young men enough in the County, to take the lead in this matter and devote some of their time to military tactics which will prove not only an ornament but of use to them perhaps in after life. Halifax Republican.

The Legislature of North Carolina meets in Raleigh, the 3rd Monday in November next. The Boys, Messrs. Pope and Clanton, members elect from this County, will be there. As they were elected independent of party nominations and everything that was wrong, and as they are unbribed, unbought and uncorrupted, there will be " no use knocking at the door." They will always vote right, regardless of party. We wouch for them. We voted for them and intend to sustain them. So will their constituents, of whose suffrage they are proud, and they of them. In Messrs. Pope and Clanton there is talent, honesty, respectability and goodness combined-rare qualities to be found in public men of this our day. Halifax Republican.

WORTH KNOWING. The correspondent of the London Times say :- The following method of dressing potatoes will be found of great use at this season of the year, when skins are tough and potatoes are watery. Score the skins of the potato with a knife, lengthwise and cross, quite round, and then boil the potato in plenty of water and salt, with the skin on. The skin readily cracks when it is scored, and lets out the moisture, which otherwise renders the potato soapy and wet. The improvement to bad potatoes by this method of boiling them is very great; and all who have tried it find a great advantage in it, now that good potatoes are very difficult to be obtained.

The Montgomery (Ala.) The address concludes with the following sentence: "We feel that the time for argument and remonstrance have passed; that action is the word, and we are Thomas T. Owen of Sampson County, to Miss Julia M. ready to stand by our arms."

The Boston Chronotype says :- " Our special expresses report excitement in New Bedford, Providence, and Springfield.
